

ARTIST MODEL TELLS STORY OF BEATING

(INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE)
NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—Sensational litigation was promised today as the result of two suits—one for alleged breach of promise and the other for damages—brought in the Brooklyn supreme court by Miss May E. Rollins, an artist model, against Robert N. Barbour, a multi-millionaire bachelor of Paterson, N. J.

Miss Rollins seeks $500,000 damages in all, $250,000 for heart balm, and $250,000 for an alleged beating she charges Barbour administered to her while she was visiting his bachelor apartments. The plaintiff accused Barbour who is over six feet and weighs more than 260 pounds, of pasting adhesive plaster over her eyes, and then beating her with straps until she became unconscious. Miss Rollins says she was treated in a sanitarium, but that her injuries are permanent.

Barbour is 35 years old. He is vice-president of the Hamilton Trust Co. of Paterson; director of the U. S. Shoe Machinery Co., director of the Paterson Industrial Development Co., and also owns large textile mills at Paterson.

BOARD OF SAFETY MEETS

Two new firemen were appointed as members of the Gary fire department and John Stapleton was re-elected to accept his former position, by members of the board of safety at their regular meeting in Gary this week. The new members are Bernard Drown and Clark Short. Mayor Hodges will soon make the appointment of a new member of the Board of Safety to fill the vacancy, caused by the resignations who recently moved his family to California.

Y. W. C. A. MEETING

Temporary board members of the Y. W. C. A. of Gary, which closed a deal for the Baker building at the corner of Sixth avenue and Massachusetts street in Gary, have announced a general organization meeting which is to be held at the library auditorium this evening and extend a cordial invitation for all men and women interested in the work to attend. Besides the naming of a temporary board, further Y. W. C. A. plans of the future will be announced. All women and girls paying their membership dues tonight will be given charter membership cards tonight.

Will Vote Democratic

Jacob Jaffe of Gary, whose name appears on the list of socialist candidates in Lake county as certified to the board of election commissioners as "Jake Jaffe" candidate for joint representative, denied yesterday that he had given the socialist party the right to place his name on the socialist ticket. Mr. Jaffe claimed that he has always voted a democratic ticket and does not intend to flip over on the other side of the fence at this late day.

NEW BRIDGE

Plans were announced from the office of Mayor W. F. Hodges of Gary yesterday afternoon for the construction of a new single span over the Grand Calumet river where the New York Central, the Baltimore and Ohio and the Elgin, Joliet and Eastern railroads crosses the stream near Tyler street.

The old narrow concrete bridges are to be torn out, all obstructions removed in the river and thereby remove the danger arising from the frequently choking up of the city sewers which drain the northern section of the city of Gary. A single 50 foot steel bridge, large enough to carry tank trucks will span the river at this point.

ORGANIZE A PROTECTION LEAGUE

Jewish citizens of Indiana Harbor have organized a society known as the Jewish Protective League of Indiana Harbor. The membership is increasing rapidly. At the last meeting 75 were present and many more have signed their intention of affiliating.

The following officers have been elected:
Chairman—H. Fraulich.
Vice Chairman—L. Levin.
Secretary—S. S. Sambursky.
Treasurer—M. Kaufman.

The date of the next meeting which will be held soon will be announced later.

FINDS BOY UNDER BED

When Mrs. W. A. Egah, 2 W. 8th avenue, saw a pair of youthful limbs and shabby shoes protruding from beneath her bed in Gary yesterday, she was given the scare of her life.

As she gained enough courage to speak and pulled 14 year old Frank Stroleksky, 1341 Monroe street, from under the bed by the nap of the neck, she was convinced that she had found the house breaker who had stolen $17 from her home a week before and again yesterday missed at a small savings bank from her dresser and a small amount of change.

Young Stroleksky was then turned over to a police officer and after being questioned admitted the thefts. A Mrs. Davis who resides at the same address claims that a ladies' gold watch was taken out of her flat on the 15th of this month and believes that Stroleksky is also responsible for the theft. He was turned over to the custody of juvenile officer Jones today.

POST FALL FESTIVAL

Big preparations are being made by the Gary post of the American Legion and the Spanish War Veterans organization of Gary in perfecting plans for the big carnival and fall festival which will be held in Gary between Seventh and Eighth avenues on Broadway in Gary all next week. Besides dozens of booths there will be a large array of attractions and free amusements.

GET OUT YOUR HEAVIES

Gary recorded its first snow fall of the winter early this morning. According to a Gary "Night Owl" it started to snow shortly after 3 o'clock and fell for a period of five minutes. It was preceded by a heavy rain and late this morning turned into sleet.

COAL MEN FEEL CRISIS APPROACHES

BY ROY W. HINDS
(STAFF CORRESPONDENT I. N. SERVICE)
WILLIAMSON, W. Va., Sept. 29.—Coal operators in the Tug river strike field began today the importation of strike breakers on an extensive scale. One hundred and twenty-five men, recruited mostly from factories in Akron, O., and other points in that region, reached here for distribution through-out Mingo county and the Pond Creek field across the river in Pike county, Kentucky.

There is a feeling here that a crisis approaches—that means will be sought to keep the strike breakers away. The authorities are taking no chances. Increased numbers of troops have been placed about the railroad station and other danger points.

A man believed to be Anton Skilba, of Cleveland, is at the tent colony of strikers on Lick Creek, two miles up the Tug river from Williamson suffering from a fractured skull received in one of the numerous clashes in the mountains.

The Lick Creek colony contains sixty-two tents housing 107 men, women and children. Preparations are being made to put board floors in the tents, presaging an intention to cling to the makeshift homes and continue the strike into the winter.

Living conditions there are of the most primitive type. Food in many cases is cooked on stoves made of rocks and mud.

None of the children wear more than one garment. The men and women are shabby. Food is scarce and what there is of it is of a very coarse variety.

High up on the bluffs across the river are the W. C. Leckie collieries, working under normal capacity because of the labor shortage and around the mines are empty houses—comfortable dwellings. The company stores are stocked with foodstuffs and clothing. And awaiting the strikers are jobs which, according to mine operators, would pay each miner an average of $300 a month.

In the face of this the miners refuse to go to work and they freely give their reason.

It is a desire to affiliate with brother coal miners throughout the country.

LENIN PICKED AS REDDEST RED AT GERMAN BEHEST

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Alfred Nagle, diplomatic representative of the Latvian government, and a brother of Peter Nagle, Gary plasterer, ordered deported from New York was responsible for the selection of Nicolai Lenin to head the bolshevik revolution in Russia, according to reports in the hands of the state department.

These reports state that some time early in 1917 Nagle was employed by Von Behrmann-Hollweg to go to Switzerland and pick out the best revolutionists and send them to Russia to overthrow the czar's government.

Nagle informed the then chancellor that Lenin was the most radical leader but urged the Germans not to use him. Lenin, however, was sent by the Germans to Russia on the now famous sealed train.

Nagle at his deportation hearings admitted he had spoken with Lenin in Switzerland in 1917 and said he had heard that Lenin was a German secret agent sent to Russia to "foment a revolution and carry out further plans laid in Germany."

THE POLITICAL WORLD IN INDIANA

(TIMES BUREAU AT STATE CAPITAL)
INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Sept. 30.—The voters of Indiana are being reminded of the false slogan of the democratic campaign of 1916 in circulars which are now being generally distributed over the state.

The circular was made possible by a slip in the arrangements of the hall at South Bend where Nominee Cox appeared August 18. Among the decorations was a large framed picture of President Wilson. Inscribed above the picture appeared the words, "Peace with honor—He kept us out of war."

On the circular appears a photograph of this Wilson picture and the 1916 slogan, which the democrats are now making mighty efforts to forget. It is related that the person who obtained the photograph of the now unpopular slogan was discovered in the act by one of the local democrats who was in charge of the hall arrangements for the meeting. He at once saw the blunder of making up some old material with which to decorate and at once tore down the picture of the president and the slogan that put him over four years ago. As a result the Wilson picture did not present itself to the audience when it assembled.

The republican circular makes no comment about the slogan with the exception of remarking that "This democratic slogan of yesterday 'He kept us out of war' means another slogan for tomorrow. This country needs constructive Americans. Vote for Harding and Coolidge and a normal and stable government."

Another flood of cold water was thrown on the democrats of Indiana by the statement this week of Governor Cox in which he declared that are matters in the administrations of Attorney General Palmer and Postmaster Gen.

"In view of his past record and of his apparent sympathy for, if not actual connection with, the bolshevik government in Russia," the state departments report to the immigration bureau recommended that Nagle be refused admittance to the United States.

error's statement was a blunder and would tend to bring him into the dispute with the faction of the party which is intensely pro-Wilson.

One of the prominent journalists who was assigned to Gov. Cox's western tour was in Indianapolis yesterday. He declared that he was present at most of the meetings held by the governor; that they were well attended and that the audiences seemed to warm up to the candidate, but that there was no doubt that the nominee was sorely disappointed over the anti-democratic sentiment.

Some of the leading Hoosier democrats today admitted that the gov-

the drift of the entire West is strong republican.

NEW BOMB TIP RECEIVED
(INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE)

"We could not have taken this action unless we felt justified in anticipating reduced costs of materials, against which conditions our companies have made provision," John N. Willys said. "It has been commented that the automobile business has been profiteering. Profit in proportion to the increase in prices has been much less in this industry than in the war. After two months of personal investigation at home and abroad, I am of the opinion that this country cannot hope to develop a healthy business and be able to compete with foreign markets unless we reestablish merchandise selling prices more nearly on a par with conditions existing prior to the war."
